Planning to Go

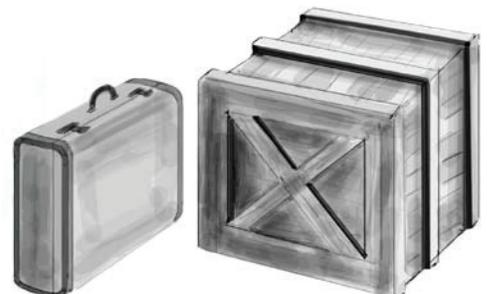

Imagine that you were going to leave the country for the next four years to serve as a missionary somewhere overseas. What types of things would you need to take with you or buy during that four-year period? How much money do you think you would need to have per month to meet those needs?

Things you would pack:

Giving to the Work of God

What are some ways that you, as a teenager, could support the work of missions or missionaries around the world? Think beyond just financial giving.

Ways I could give my money:

Ways I could give my time:

Ways I could give my talents:

Ways I could give my stuff:

A Covenant

to Go with

The Gospel

Spend some time considering what you have learned this week. Think about how you can take part in God's mission in this world. Then prayerfully read through this covenant several times. If it truly reflects your heart for service, sign your name at the bottom and put it somewhere you will see it regularly.

“Dear God, thank You for saving me from my sins and for making me Your child. I know You desire that I tell others of Your greatness and love so that they, too, might believe on Your Son.

Give me the grace to actively seek opportunities to testify of Christ in my daily goings. And Lord, if you would have me go into full-time missionary service, make Your will clear, equip me for Your purpose, and give me a willing heart for the work at hand.”
